What the Directors are Saying

“Thank you, Charles Winters, for providing such an environment for us to share these ideas and continue to grow Anne’s idea for etiquette and dance.”

*~Melanie Martin
Jackson County Chapter, MS*

“As Catherine Horgan spoke Sunday, I was certain she was talking just to me. I realized that in order to attract new students and parents I needed to update my garments. I can’t wait to go shopping!”

*~Sharon Pate
Hood County Chapter, TX*

“The NLJC National Convention provided a wonderful opportunity to renew friendships with some and begin friendships with others.”

*~Page Rhoad
Holy Innocents’ Episcopal School Chapter and Wesleyan School Chapter, GA*

“I would highly encourage all directors to attend conventions! The whole weekend was a precious tribute to Anne Winters.”

*~Elaine Poitevint
Henry County Chapter, GA*

“The 2010 Convention was wonderful! I thoroughly enjoyed connecting with peer directors across the country.”

*~Julie Copeland
Northern Guilford Chapter, NC*

“The Convention was a wonderful informative experience. I am honored to be named Director of the Year. It is so rewarding to be a part of the National League of Junior Cotillions knowing that we are a positive influence on our young people.”

*~Arlene Wroblicky
Northern Orange County Chapter, FL*

“The 2010 NLJC Convention was the highlight of my summer! I learned so much about how technology can promote my individual chapters.”

*~Lisa Chase
Southern Delaware Chapter and New Castle and Kent Chapter, DE*

"What Junior Cotillion Means to Me"

Essay Contest Winner for 2010

"Junior Cotillion can be interpreted in different ways, but I think that the main lesson is clear-to treat others with respect, dignity, honor and use proper etiquette wherever you go. Personally, Junior cotillion has given me confidence to be the first one to say "hello" to a new student at school. Through sports etiquette, I've learned how to keep cool when I've lost to an opposing team. I also have learned to be courteous to adults, giving firm handshakes and making eye contact. Attending this class has taught me to act kindly towards others and even a few dance steps!"

Congratulations, Sarah A. Philips
Susan Schlossberg, Director,
Lynchburg Chapter, VA!

at least. I also like it because I get to dress up nice, more than I use to. I am so glad I chose to do Cotillion because I needed to learn more manners. Now I think I can be the best guest at a party!"

"Junior Cotillion means a lot to me because I have learned more manners. Even though dancing with a boy is a little bit weird, I still like it. It is fun to see some of my friends there and to have a laugh every once in a while. If I quit Cotillion, I would be sad because it is fun to go once a month how to dance. I feel much more comfortable when I'm with people, and though I'm still not totally comfortable dancing with boys, I feel more confident knowing what to do."

"I wasn't looking forward to starting Cotillion. I figured that we would be lectured on table manners, and it would be boring. But Cotillion is nothing like I expected. it isn't just about table manners, and our teacher doesn't lecture us. She talks with us, and what she says makes a lot of sense. I am having fun, and I am learning how to act in all kinds of situations, even

Katherine Quinn
Julie Copeland, Director,
Northern Guilford Chapter,
NC

“Junior Cotillion means I can be sure how to be respectful and polite to my family and peers. I can go to a fancy restaurant and know how to act appropriately. I can also impress my parents, be lady-like when I should, be able to ballroom dance and be a ballroom dance teacher for my friends. I couldn’t do that without taking Cotillion. I would have missed out on a lot of fun and knowledge. Cotillion was an opportunity of a lifetime. I met new friends, teachers, learned cool dances, and most importantly, I learned to be polite and respectful.”

Remington Grant
Fontaine
Jan Cohn, Director,
Greater Columbia Chapter,
SC

“Like everything in life, there’s a right and wrong way to do things. Through Junior Cotillion, I have learned many of the necessary skills to respect and better the relationships around me. The proper manners and etiquette that I have learned have made me more confident now and I am sure it will later in life. My dignity and esteem have been strengthened by having the knowledge of proper courtesies, manners and responsibilities necessary for everyday life and the special occasions I’m sure that I will enjoy. To me, Cotillion is honor, dignity, respect and more.”

National Courtesy, Character & Citizenship Month

PREPARING FOR NATIONAL COURTESY, CHARACTER & CITIZENSHIP MONTH

Be sure to remind NLJC students to write and submit their entries for the national essay scholarship contest “HOW LEARNING GOOD MANNERS CAN IMPROVE OUR LIVES” no later than December 30th. A scholarship will be given to the winner. NLJC Handout # 55A, which gives directions, is located in the student handout booklets. Winners will be selected by the first of January. If you have a student who has won or is a finalist, we will send you items to commemorate this achievement. Then, ideally, you can honor this student at your February class. (This class is a wonderful photo opportunity for your chapter - please invite the press to attend.)

Please review your materials in Packet #46 for CC&C month thoroughly. You will need to have your agenda outlined for Courtesy Month well before February. NOW is the time to contact your mayor, school principals, and teachers.

- November - Send out letters and sample proclamation to Mayor; ask for an appointment to discuss this National Courtesy, Character, and Citizenship Month with him/her. Take NLJC students with you; this makes a great impact. Ask the Mayor to attend the January or February class to speak on “THE IMPORTANCE OF USING GOOD MANNERS AS A PUBLIC SERVANT.”
- November - Pass out NLJC Handout # 55A to students so they can write and submit their essays on “HOW LEARNING GOOD MANNERS CAN IMPROVE OUR LIVES.” Winners will be selected by the first of January. If you have a student who has won or is a finalist, we will send you items to commemorate this achievement. Then, ideally, you can honor this student at your January class with the mayor. (This class is a wonderful photo op. for your chapter - please invite the press to attend.)
- December - After confirmation from the mayor, send letters and a copy of the Mayor’s proclamation to the school superintendent and school principals.
- January - Send out Press Releases to local media. Make yourself available for interviews.
- January - Make copies of the flyers and distribute them around town to grocery stores, banks, schools, churches, etc.
- One week prior - Deliver a copy of the “Making a Difference Day by Day” and the “Characteristics of a Noble Character” handout to schools and churches who plan to participate.
